

Hazel Hill Wood

Volunteer Days 2017

Want to get more involved conserving your local woodland?

Come and join one of our conservation volunteer days at Hazel Hill Wood

ABOUT THE WOOD

Hazel Hill Wood is a registered charity with a 70 acre ancient woodland site that lies just 7 miles outside Salisbury. It has a high diversity of wildflowers, trees and fungi, providing a variety of landscapes and habitats.

ABOUT THE DAYS

Taking care of these habitats requires ongoing conservation work. Join our dedicated team of volunteers, help to maintain the diversity and tranquillity of Hazel Hill, learn new skill and enjoy the beauty of the wood through the seasons.

Some of the conservation activities will include:

- Coppicing
- Tree planting
- Removal of invasive species
- Traditional woodland craft
- Hedge maintenance
- And much more!
