

FlitFest 2018

August 27- September 1st

Farley All saints Church, Village Hall & the Hook and Glove Pub

All events begin at 7.30pm

All tickets £10 include pre-talk drinks

Friends tickets £30 allows entry into all talks

For further info see www.farleyliteraryfestival.co.uk or email info@farleyliteraryfestival.co.uk

Monday August 27th: Phoebe Morgan, Commissioning Editor for Harper Collins, opens the Festival with a talk about publishing and her own bestselling novel, THE DOLL HOUSE.

Tuesday August 28th: In the Church, our favourite Canon, Jeremy Davies, will talk about the works of IRIS MURDOCH, whilst in the Village Hall, a night for younger audiences and all those interested in writing for young adults: authors Julia North and Edmund Lester discuss writing for young adult readers.

Wednesday August 29th: 'Thriller Night'! Investigative journalist and three times 'thriller' writer, Ed Davey, talks with debut thriller novelist, Simon Masters.

Thursday, August 30th: In the church, delightful Leif Bersweden returns to Farley to talk about his 'coming of age and orchids' novel, THE ORCHID HUNTER.

And in the Village Hall we have a Self-Publishing workshop where our panel of self-published writers will talk about the benefits and pitfalls of self-publishing, offering advice and inspiration. Bring along some writing of your own to discuss!

Friday, August 31st: We welcome the hugely successful, Sunday Times top 10 best selling author, Laura Marshall, author of FRIEND REQUEST to talk about her work

Saturday, September 1st, End of festival week supper and literary quiz at the Hook and Glove Pub: created by Chris Morgan!